"Procedure"

Identification of Related Party

- a) On the basis of criteria prescribed under the Act and/or SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015 and also per the declarations/disclosures furnished by Directors and Key Managerial Personnel, the list of Related Parties shall be compiled, and the same shall be updated from time to time.
- b) RPTs and their subsequent material modifications will be brought to the management and the Board's attention. Each of our Directors and executive officers is instructed and periodically reminded to inform the office of the Company Secretary about any potential RPTs and their subsequent material modifications. In addition, each Director gives annual disclosures designed to elicit information about any potential RPTs and their subsequent material modifications.
- c) Any potential RPTs are analyzed by the Finance Department, in consultation with management and with outside counsel, if required; to determine whether the transaction or relationship does constitute an RPT requiring compliance with this Policy.

Review and approval of RPTs Audit Committee

Unless otherwise provided in the Act and SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015, all Related Party Transactions and their subsequent material modifications shall require prior approval of the Audit Committee, and only Independent Directors who are members of the Audit Committee can approve RPTs.

Any member of the Audit Committee who has a potential interest in any Related Party Transaction shall recuse himself and abstain from discussion and voting on the approval of the Related Party transaction.

The Audit Committee shall also review the status of long-term (more than one year) or recurring RPTs on an annual basis.

Besides this, the Audit Committee can either approve or reject a proposed Related Party Transaction. It is clarified that any modification/ renewal of an existing Related Party Transaction shall also require prior approval of the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee shall grant omnibus approval for Related Party Transactions subject to such criteria/conditions as mentioned under Regulation 23(3) of the Listing Regulations and such other conditions as it may consider necessary.

Such omnibus approvals shall be valid for a period not exceeding one year and shall require fresh approvals after the expiry of one year.

	A Related Party Transaction entered into by the Company, which is not under the omnibus approval or otherwise pre-approved by the Audit Committee, will be placed before the Audit Committee for ratification, in exceptional cases. The Audit Committee shall review, on a quarterly basis, the details of Related Party Transactions entered into by the Company pursuant to each omnibus approval. Board's Approval Unless the transactions are failing either of the two tests o r d i n a r y course of business and arm's length basis, the transactions are not taken to the Board of Directors. Any member of the Board who has any interest in any Related Party Transaction will recuse himself and abstain from discussion and voting on the approval of the Related Party Transaction. Shareholders' Approval Where a proposed Related Party Transaction is 'Material Related Party Transaction' or such other case as the Board may deem fit, it shall require prior approval of the shareholders and all Related Parties shall abstain from voting, irrespective of whether they are party to the particular transaction or not. Such omnibus shareholders' approval for material RPTs taken in an Annual General Meeting ("AGM") shall be valid up to the date of the next AGM. In case of approval taken in General Meetings other than AGMs, the validity of such approvals is valid till the next AGM.
